CARDINALS

Shaw High School
15320 Euclid Ave
East Cleveland, Ohio 44112

The Rise Of

The Cardinal is found in the United States from the Gulf of Mexico north to New York and west to Iowa. The cardinal is about nine inches long. The male has brilliant red feathers of many shades. It has a black face and neck. The female has brownish-gray plumage with splashes of red. Both sexes have a high crest of feathers on their head, resembling a crown. Their song is a series of clear whistles.

The cardinal has been the mascot for Shaw High for a century. Over this past 100 years Shaw has reached many peaks — from football LEL champions and baseball state champs to a girls LEL basketball championship. But recently there have been many seasons of losing teams, followed by bitter disappointments, and little school spirit and pride. The school got older, and the students began to feel as if nobody cared. Then things began to change. Our girls basketball team became regional champs, and we had something to cheer about. The academy building underwent extensive renovations and the tech building was painted. We were proud to say we went to Shaw. It's 1981 and the Cardinal Will Rise.

Education is:

Education is a companion which no misfortune can decrease, no crime destroy, no enemy alienate, no despotism enslave; at home a friend, abroad an introduction, in solitude a solace, in society an ornament. It chastens vice, guides virtue, and gives grace and government to genius. Education may cost financial sacrifice and mental pain, but in both money and life values it will repay every cost one hundred fold.

Quier For A Change!

TOGETHER

Being with friends and family is a joyous feeling. It turns the gloom of the world into a mere shadow and often encourages great accomplishments and good feelings unequalled. To work together, to have fun together, a sense of unity that possesses power.

A Star Is Born . . . Mini Max!!

Shaw High School's new $147,000.00 multi purpose computer is named "Mini Max". It was named that because it may be small, but it does a big job!

The computer does cuts, attendance, report cards, referrals, gives information about students in East Cleveland, and plays games. Mr. Sterba (who has been working with computers since 1975) will usually give demonstrations after school.

Even though it will be one year old at the end of October, Mini Max just started being used this summer!

1981 King

GEORGE BERRY wanted to be Homecoming King. Vernon Robinson and Rodney Butler, Homecoming Kings of the past two years had encouraged him. The E.C. Players, the football team, and Canteen Council supported him. George met all the school requirements for running, ran and won. But he still exclaimed, "I didn't think I'd really win!"

George had to purchase a new suit for the rally, and his partner, Terry Lovett, co-ordinated her suit with his. The student body gave its stamp of approval and voted for George as the 1980-81 Homecoming King.

And Queen

VANESSA JOHNSON, a senior in cosmetology, was named the 1980-81 Homecoming Queen. She had been encouraged by her mother who had been the Homecoming Queen at Gregory High School in Alabama. Many of her friends also encouraged her, and Arnita Mahone, the 1978-79 Homecoming Queen and Vanessa's cousin, had a great deal of influence on her. All of this encouragement and a winning smile proved to Vanessa's advantage. She purchased virtually an entire new wardrobe with new clothes for the rally, football game, and dance. She was escorted by Evon Gocan, another senior in the Vocational Unit.

Vanessa stated that even though "There are no rules for being queen, I always try to have a positive attitude." Everyone who knows Vanessa can attest to this positive attribute.

In Memoriam

The 1980-81 Shuttle is dedicated to the memory of the three students who lost their lives in the summer of 1980. They are Wayne Shannon (1981), Anthony Killings (1982) and Malcolm Johnson (1981).

Death is swift and tragic. It fills our hearts and eyes with tears. Somehow we manage to keep our faith, our beliefs and hope.

That death is really only a long tunnel to peace and tranquility far superior to anything on this earth.

Dr. Rondle E. Edwards, Superintendent of schools

Mr. Selma Gamble, Principal Shaw High School

Mr. Stephen J. Lloyd, Associate Principal

The mighty Cardinals are on the Move!

The achievements and accomplishments of the Shaw Cardinals are becoming evident on all fronts. The demands and expectations of students have increased as have student involvement and parent support of extra-curricular activities. Students' pride in themselves and their school is rising.

Come fly with the Cardinals!

Shaw West

The Shaw West Alternative School is available to students in the East Cleveland school system who desire an alternative approach to learning. The 1980-81 school year finds 80 students enrolled with 38 of those being seniors.

Guest speakers have come to the Campus to discuss banking, the internal revenue service, all branches of the armed services, the corporate model and entry level jobs vs. career opportunities, the insurance industry, and pride and accomplishments as a life goal.

Parents have been cooperative and supportive to the Alternative school Program. They have accepted a homework policy and encourage their young adults to improve their grades and attendance at school.

Ebony Magazine Visits Shaw!

Good Things Are Happening In East Cleveland And At Shaw!

EBONY, a national magazine, visited Shaw in January to talk to faculty, students, and administration to discuss school programs and facilities. The positive image being projected by our school during a time when education and teenagers are under great criticism is something for us to be very proud of. We are being recognized in a late spring issue of EBONY and were acclaimed locally by the media as a leader in education.

THE MARCHING BAND

The 1980-81 Cardinal Marching Band consists of 72 members including 17 flag girls and 14 hi-liters. During the school year they have participated in many competitive field events, including the State Fair in Columbus, the Ohio Music Education Association, and the band festival in Geneva, Ohio.

The band is directed by Samuel F. Stephenson, a 1974 graduate of Shaw.

Student Council

The Student Council is made up of approximately 100 homeroom representatives and students at large. Their weekly "O" period meeting generated a great many activities during the school year. They sponsored Thanksgiving and Christmas can food drives providing food, clothing and toys for three needy families in East Cleveland. The Student Council hosted all major activities at Shaw including homecoming, open house, and the scholastic banquet. They also were the host school for the Lake Erie League's annual meeting which provides students from all LEL schools an opportunity to meet and exchange ideas. They are advised by Mr. George Smith.

Shuttle Staff

The Shuttle Staff has grown to 36 students who found getting up for 0 period sometimes more of a chore than all the work that had to be done. The staff was made up of juniors and seniors, and they found that putting together 144 pages entailed a major commitment and a lot of hard work. The most difficult task was selling more than 300 yearbooks. Additionally, the staff had to raise money through selling patron ads. Final copy was shipped February 23.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society consists of juniors and seniors who have maintained an accumulative point average above 3.3. The requirements for eligibility include character, service, scholarship, and leadership in addition to their point averages. There are two annual induction ceremonies each year - one in the fall and one in the spring. It is the hope of the honor society to inspire the entire student body to higher levels of achievement.

Les Bons Vivants

The French Club's twice per month meetings were generally very busy. They were visited by a guest speaker from Cheese World who presented a lecture on cheeses and breads and also provided samples of different French cheeses. They visited the art museum for the French exposition and presented their annual Christmas carolling on December 19th. June will find "Les Bons Vivants" in Quebec.

Upward Bound

Upward Bound met every Tuesday and Thursday for two hours after school. Tutorials were held in the areas of mathematics and English. There were also brief lessons on college preparatory content material. These sessions made up only a small segment of the program that places students on a college campus environment during the summer months. Students in this program have been selected as probable candidates for a post-secondary school. It is hoped that students will improve basic study skills, scholastic work, college board scores and become better prepared for further education.

Junior Distributive Education is a program for those students with a career goal of retail sales/management. Both related and block instruction revolve around a comprehensive study of marketing principles, salesmanship, and related retailing duties, social skills, and employment skills. The curriculum gives basic training and growth potential to those who will go immediately into the business world.

The students of Jr D.E. run the Cardinal Connection, a retail store. Such items as clothing, health and beauty aids, jewelry, colognes, and gift items are sold as well as school supplies.

The Vocational Co-op Food Service Program is a two year program which trains students in the 11th grade through the Captains Quarters and places students on job sites during the 12th grade. Juniors are responsible for planning lunch menus, preparing foods, serving lunches, and generally all duties necessary in running the Captains Quarters which is open once per week for the faculty and administration. Seniors attend school for only a half day. They are employed in Food Service positions in the afternoon by fast food operations and local hospitals such as the Cleveland Clinic.

Shuttle Staff At Work

The 1980-81 Shuttle Staff consisted of 36 members who met daily at 7:55 A.M. This year's staff was made up of juniors and seniors dedicated to selling a record-breaking number of yearbooks.

The 144 page book takes hours of hard work and dedication. The staff members perform duties as photographers, copy writers, sales-people, lay-out artists, artists, and good public relations people. Additionally, the Shuttle Staff was responsible for publishing the school newspaper on a monthly basis.

Staff members J. Bailey, K. Larkin, and copy editor, L. Daniels prepare boxes for "Guiding Lights" newspaper column.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, income, and any other financial activity.

The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the accounting process. It starts with the identification of the accounting cycle, which consists of eight steps: identifying the accounting cycle, analyzing and journalizing the transactions, posting to the ledger, preparing a trial balance, adjusting the accounts, preparing financial statements, and closing the books. Each step is explained in detail, with examples and practical advice.

The third part of the document focuses on the preparation of financial statements. It covers the balance sheet, the income statement, and the statement of cash flows. It explains how these statements are derived from the accounting records and how they provide a comprehensive view of the company's financial health.

The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of internal controls. It explains how internal controls help to prevent errors and fraud, and how they ensure the accuracy and reliability of the financial information. It provides examples of internal controls and discusses how they should be implemented.

The fifth part of the document covers the topic of depreciation. It explains how depreciation is calculated and how it is recorded in the accounting records. It also discusses the different methods of depreciation and how they affect the financial statements.

The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of budgeting. It explains how a budget is prepared and how it is used to control costs and manage the company's resources. It provides examples of budgets and discusses how they should be used.

The seventh part of the document covers the topic of taxes. It explains how taxes are calculated and how they are recorded in the accounting records. It also discusses the different types of taxes and how they affect the company's financial statements.

The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of auditing. It explains how an audit is conducted and how it helps to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the financial information. It provides examples of audits and discusses how they should be conducted.

The ninth part of the document covers the topic of financial ratios. It explains how financial ratios are calculated and how they are used to analyze the company's financial performance. It provides examples of financial ratios and discusses how they should be used.

The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of financial forecasting. It explains how financial forecasts are prepared and how they are used to plan for the future. It provides examples of financial forecasts and discusses how they should be used.
