The Shaw*

Developing a sense of self. Meeting new friends. Experiencing new cultures. Exploring new heights. Exceeding expectations. This is what happens to Shaw students each and every academic year. Through study, athletics, extracurricular, and personal experiences. Shaw students broaden their horizons to prepare them for life. From the home and elementary school, is the first step in broadening horizons. From Kirk to Shaw is the next and from this point, students prepare themselves for life's challenges.

Academics prepare a student to broaden horizons. They set the stage for understanding differences and learning new things. They also help us to relate to others.

HORIZONS

Athletics help students explore their own potential for success. They help set personal and team goals for achievement as well as introducing students to new ways of looking at problems or challenges.

Extra-curriculars bring students into contact with new and different ideas and people. They broaden horizons by challenging the mind, creating wider circles of friends and teaching new skills.

Personal relationships teach how to relate to others; to put the needs of others before our own.

Combined, the above make it possible for Shaw students to grow and develop as mature, responsible adults. They have and will continue to broaden horizons.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

A variety of activities were planned at Shaw to help celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Afro-Americans. The theme for 1988 was: "If you know the beginning, the end will not trouble you."

Activities began in January with the viewing of films about history by students in their social studies classes. During February, video-tapes on African-American history and culture were shown at Korb during the lunch periods. A lecture series assemblies and Black Academic Challenge Competition were all part of the celebration.

Highlights of the series were an electrifying performance by the Imani African American Dance Company, which was made possible by the Ohio Arts Council. Ms. Linda Thomas-Jones, the Imani Company Director, is Shaw's artist in residence.

Misani Gayle, publicist for the musical "Gospel at Colonus" talked to a group of students about behind the scenes careers in theater. Mr. Robert Earl Jones did dramatic readings of poems by African-American poets. He was accompanied by Mr. Willie Rogers, lead singer of the Soul Stirrers. He spoke to students about his career with the group and sang for the students.

Mr. Leon Bibb, newscaster for WKYC TV 3 gave an inspirational talk to students and faculty.

The Third Annual Black Academic Challenge was held at the East Cleveland Public Library on February 25th. The event was more exciting than ever due to the participation of the ninth grade social studies classes. The top three teams were coached by Mrs. N. Alvarez, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Simon, Mrs. Avery, and Mrs. Gaines.

Teams that made it to the public library were Mrs. Alvarez' 5th period class consisting of Eddie Harper, Arlo McGee, Claudia Tufts and Seretta Williams; Mrs. Moore's 6th period class consisting of David Carter, Philese Grier, Nichole McClinton and Sha'netta Wade. Mrs. Simon's 2nd period class consisting of Charles Battle, Jason Bibb, Marc Graham and Terrance McGlothan.

Mr. Tolbert returned for his third year as a coach. His team consisted of Germaine Billingsley, Quelina Jordan and Beverly Kelley. Mr. Roger Warner served as the moderator and Ms. Pam Smith coordinated the competition.

All students who competed were awarded prizes and certificates. The winning team received placques and a $100.00 Saving Bond.

MARTIN LUTHER KING AWARD

Kellie Morris, 1988 M.L.K. Winner

Kellie Morris, a senior, received the coveted Martin Luther King, Jr. Award for 1988 in ceremonies held at Shaw High School. This annual award is given to a junior or senior who best typify and exemplify the attributes of the great Civil Rights hero. Kellie and seven other nominees were rated by a five member panel of judges on the traits of citizenship, community service, humanitarianism and leadership.

ECONOMIC JUSTICE

Germaine Billingsly

Thanks to Dr. King's concept of economic justice, junior Germaine Billingsly is the recipient of the Entrepreneur's Business Plan Award. Germaine received the money to start his own balloon decorating business. The balloons provide decorations for weddings, proms, birthdays and other events. His project was selected as being the most likely to be successful.

Germaine has already received a $300.00 order to provide balloon decorations for the Young Entrepreneur's Day activities at John Carroll University. CONGRATULATIONS.

Meeting new friends.

Shaw High is many things: large, overcrowded, confusing but it is friendly. Freshmen may be teased about their newness to the Shaw experience, but it is generally done with a good natured tongue in cheek attitude. Welcome, to the many faces and smiles of Shaw High School. Friendships are formed here.

Derrick Ferguson and Amul Patel share conversation at Korb.

Class President, Shaleta Mitchell shares her friendliness.

Rhonda Holmes symbolizes friendliness in her smile.

Teachers smile. Really!

Is Thomas Barnes (w/Tameka Haney) running for prettiest smile next year?

Fred Allen and Antoine Austin illustrate Shaw's friendliness.

Lady mechanic Tracie is ready to smile.

Double your pleasure, smiles from twins Eugene and Ernest Wilson.

Nina Hughes smiles; she met Clark Kellogg.

Coco McClanahan and Bonita Fowler greet customers with a smile.

Exploring new cultures

SHAW MEETS THE WORLD

The 1987-88 school year was a year of broadening horizons with the world. Shaw students had an opportunity to meet, live, learn and party! with people from other countries. A Shaw faculty member had the opportunity to live work in Argentina for 6 months. The exchanges allowed Shaw students to view the world in a new perspective while allowing the visitors to gain a greater understanding and appreciation of the Shaw experience.

Brett Trebilcock, came to Shaw from Melbourne, Australia, where he lives with his parents, Colin & Marcia Trebilcock, sister Kerrie, 22, and brother Ashley, 20. In East Cleveland, he made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Billingsley and their son Germaine.

From the beginning, Brett experienced the natural warmth, friendliness and curiosity of the Shaw family. "He sounds like Crocodile Dundee", exclaimed the students. Brett responded with Australian friendliness and the success of his visit was assured.

When Brett returns to Australia, he has one more year before starting college. He promises to return for reunions and other related events.

Brett's award winning speech for the Shaw High Speech team was about his experience as an exchange student. In it he pointed out that he had the opportunity to live Dr. Martin Luther King's dream of children, Black and White, going to school together. It was an unforgettable experience.

Brett says to all: "It's been fun and I couldn't have asked for a better year. I have to thank all of you for accepting me into your school and treating me so well. I know when I return home, I'm going to have lots to share. I'm going to miss a lot though, such as the friends I've made and the outside activities I've enjoyed. Look out for yourselves, I'll miss you all."

Goodbye, Brett. We hope it won't be long before you hear, "YO, MATE!"

Señor Bustos

Spanish students were surprised to hear the accents of Argentina when they entered their classrooms this year. The voice belongs to Señor Daniel Bustos from Argentina. Señor Bustos was here as part of the Fullright Teacher Exchange Program.

In Argentina, Señor Bustos teaches at the college level.

Señora Senor

Virginia Senor, Shaw's lively Spanish teacher, spent six months in Argentina as a Fulbright Teacher. Ms. Senor was chosen to represent the United States after undergoing a grueling application process. Her fellow teachers had no doubts regarding her success.

While in Argentina, Ms. Senor lived in LaRioja with her daughter Kyle. She taught English in high school and college. Ms. Senor feels her experience was a once in a lifetime opportunity. Her experience allows her to share a portion of the world with her students.

Bill Wake

"Did he say Scott LaRock?" Yes, he did. It seems that rap music is very big in portions of Gateshead, England. At least that's what students discovered when Bill Wake visited Shaw High School classes.

Bill was in Cleveland as part of an exchange program which allows inner-city students the opportunity to visit America. While at Shaw, Bill participated in several talk sessions, giving Shaw students the chance to share experiences and ideas.

Exceeding Expectations

A Message from

Shaw students come to school to learn and to achieve. The majority do just that. On these pages, however, are those students who exceeded expectations. They achieved more than expected in the areas of academics, sports, and performing arts. The students pictured here are not the only students who excelled, but they are good representatives of the day to day process of learning, the sports field of competition, extra-curricular and the performing arts.

To them, and to all who exceeded our expectations, congratulations and the best for the future.

Shaw High School has a proud and illustrious history of high achievement and success going back over 100 years. On this page is proof that the tradition lives on. The class of 1988 has contributed greatly to this tradition. You have met the challenges and the victories are yours. Let the successes of your high school years guide you in the future.

Lenora Lockett had the highest grade point average of anyone inducted into the "Academic Hall of Fame" at Shaw High School. Lenora is a well rounded student. In addition to her studies, she is President of the National Honor Society and was Planning Events Leader for Youth to Youth. She has participated in Minority Students for Math and Science during the summer and is currently a member of Career Beginnings and the Speech Team. Lenora hopes to become a Civil Engineer. Good Luck, Lenora!

Wendy Wilson has also attained high academic honors. In addition to being on the National Honor Society, Wendy was also a member of Shaw High School's Drug Busters. In 1987 Wendy received the Martin Luther King Award and also won 2nd place for an essay entered into the 1987 Science Fair.

For her future, Wendy says, "With a major in Biochemistry, I hope to find a cure for many of the traumatic diseases that are in this world today." Good Luck, Wendy!

Yusuf Muhammed and Darren Fisher were the Grand Prize Winners of the 1988 Science Fair. Their project concerned ant-acid analysis. Both students are 12th graders. Both students received a plaque, $150 savings bond, and $75 in cash. Congratulations, Yusuf and Darren! You did an excellent job!

Sports

Ron Greer is one of the tri-captains of Shaw's "Big Red" Football team. Ron is an all around team player who is devoted to Tom Mental and the "Big Red" football team. He received honors such as 1st team all L.E.L., 1st team all N.E. Ohio, all state special mention, which he attributes to all of his teammates and the "Big Red" coaching staff. Ron would like to Thank his family, the "Big Red," and steady Charlene Hilliard, but especially, Coach Tom Mental!

Who could we single out from this super team? There were a number of possibilities. The Twin Towers, Sharmella and Janel, or the famous Gucci Guards, Holly and Desiree. The entire team, players and coaches, however, deserve special recognition for making our Shaw spirits soar during the 87-88 season. THE LADYBIRDS WENT TO COLUMBUS! Congratulations, L.E.L. Coach, Spivey! You and the Ladybirds made us PROUD!

Reggie Kemp Shaw High's Mr. Excitement, enjoyed a glamorous senior season. He averaged 22 points, 11 rebounds and 4 assists per game while leading Shaw to its 3rd Lake Erie League title in 4 years. He concluded his career as the schools all time leading scorer. Reggie was also selected to numerous honors such as all L.E.L., all district, all scholastic, all state and honorable mention all american. Reggie thanks God, his family, Coach Killian, teammates, students, faculty, and the East Cleveland community for his success. I love you all "Peace."

Maurice Odom and Brett Trebilcock were two of nineteen speech team members who qualified for State Competition. Maurice's event was humor (Surprised? we weren't). His Hamlet II placed him as one of the seven funniest young men in the State of Ohio. Brett's speech, which will be published in Winning Orations, concerned his experience as an exchange student at Shaw. A superior job gentlemen!

The Mock Trial Team once again made Shaw proud. The Shaw team, pictured above, won the right to represent the Greater Cleveland District at State Level Mock Trial Competition. Shaw's team traveled to Columbus where they finished among the top in the state. The Mock Trial team is one of Shaw's best activities, requiring knowledge and action. Go, Future Lawyers!

Bakari Jackson and Laticia Warren, music students at Shaw, were chosen for special honors. Bakari was chosen to be a member of the Kent State Ohio All Star Band, while Laticia was selected as part of the Bowling Green Honor Band. Both students are to be commended for their talent and hard work. Do we hear music in the future?

FASHION HORIZONS

As seniors broaden horizons in many areas, the one area that has the most impact on a young man or lady is fashion. Has our fashion horizon altered much since last year? Not really, but we have had the benefit of time to judge what's fashion and what's fad.

Fads are fun. They come in quickly and go out just as fast. You can be in fashion if you follow fads but you will never be fashionable.

Knowing how to dress is the key to it all. It means working hard to look good at all costs. As a student at Shaw High School, you must be able to keep in style.

For instance, if you want to fit right in when you walk the hall or go over to Korb, put on a pair of Levis' or stone washed jeans with a unique sweater. A troop jacket and matching sneakers also do the trick.

Occasionally, you may want to step out in your very best. For gentlemen this means your leather pants and a silk shirt with your matching Dexter dress shoes. For the ladies, a suede and leather dress is always a favorite and don't forget your matching pumps.

The Most important ground rule is to accessorize. Everyone must layer their neck in gold chains as they did in the past but be sure to add flashing watches and sparkling rings to your jewelry.

Louis Vuitton and Liz Clairborne still make handbags for the ladies while the males may sport real leather briefcases — or at least the best in gym bags.

All of this costs money, so choose wisely. After all, you are the one who must wear what you buy.

If you are trying to find that perfect outfit, be sure to find something that expresses your own unique personality. What's good will be around for awhile as basic fashion shows. Don't get caught up in fads — "Broaden your horizons!"

HOMIE

coming '87

The time was late September and Shaw began to prepare for its annual Homecoming festivities. The news of the ten potential candidates quickly swept the school.

Within twenty-four hours posters were hung and promotional badges were distributed to all students. School spirit was high as the campaign progressed.

The festivities began Wednesday, September 30 with the annual Homecoming Pep Rally and lasted until the end of the week. At the Pep Rally each candidate and his/her escort "stepped" for the school body, who responded by cheering and applauding. Excitement was high. The next day would be very important; it was election time.

After votes were in and counted, the next event was the Homecoming Parade. Shaw High School's 1987-88 Homecoming King and Queen, Brett Trebilcock and Kishia Towns, rode in a 1987 convertible Volkswagen Jetta. They were followed by many Shaw High organizations and clubs as well as the Homecoming Court. The Homecoming Court consisted of Joe Colon, Keith Davis, Willie Garrett, Dwayne Jacobs, Quelina Jordan, Kellie Morris, Robin Perry, and Jennifer Short. Overall, the parade was one of the biggest and best ever.

And putting the icing on the cake (oh, and about cake, this year we had a three-story cake accented with candles, lovely roses, and a Barbie and Ken doll to represent the King and Queen) was the Homecoming Dance. This year it was held in the Korb Lounge which had been beautifully decorated by the Canteen Council. Each member of the Court wore a beautiful silk carnation to signify his/her accomplishment and each received a trophy. Everyone did the "Cabbage Patch," the "Soda Pop," and the "Fred Sanford" to the beat of Public Enemy and Glen Jones, to name a few. It was a night that no one will very soon forget.

This Homecoming has proven once again that 1988 is GREAT and will FOREVER DOMINATE.

1988 Broadening Horizons

The graduates of 1988 have begun their first major steps towards broadening their personal horizons. The journey began long ago and culminates in this special year. It is both an end and a beginning. It is the end of a period of formal, compulsory, education which began in the autumn of 1976. That was the year this class began the first grade.

During the twelve years which followed, the 1988 graduates grew, learned and developed. 1988 marks the completion of their journey. From this point on, they are responsible for continuing to develop their own unique selves. Whatever path they choose to follow, we hope that what they have learned at Shaw will help them achieve their goals.

"BIG RED" WINS SIX

The 1987-88 Cardinal footballers continued their winning ways. The season marked the fourth consecutive year that all teams, Varsity, J.V. and Freshman had winning records. This is indeed a record of which all players can be proud.

The Varsity's record was 6-4 which placed them third in the L.E.L. The highlight of the season came between games two to six. The "Big Red" ran off six straight victories against rivals such as Glenville and Cleveland Heights. These victories over arch rivals were thrilling.

Defense was the varsity's strong point. They posted 3 shutouts and only allowing one touchdown or less in eight of ten games.

Morris Furman, Ron Greer, Mario Houston, Randy Cook, Sean Patterson, Damien Evans and Darnell Staten led the team in tackles. Billy Cloud, Delrone Brown and Mike Thomas provided sound secondary coverage.

The "Big Red" offense was led by quarterback Vic Rush. The scoring leaders were Chris Moore and Billy Cloud.

Chris Moore, Lavelle Humphrey, and Billy Cloud provide most of the running offense behind the sound blocking of Waverly Willis, Hosea Steele, and Robert Bostick.

Billy Cloud and Morris Furman were chosen Most Valuable Players. Vic Rush was honored by being voted Mr. Big Red.

The Cardinals line up against Cleveland Hts.

Vic Rush passes off to Chris "Spanky" Moore

It can be hard to find an open man.

SPECIAL SENIORS

The senior class of 1988 represents a very special group of young men. They are the first group to have played all four years for Coach Mental. They have compiled four years of winning seasons. Ron Greer tells us why they were winners. "Our winning seasons have been due to hard work, on and off the field. It is also due to the hard work and dedication of the coaches, especially the extra efforts of Head Coach, Tom Mental. Coach Mental has been with us since we were freshmen, and those who stayed with the program turned out to be fine young men. In our "Big Red" community, we have a saying: "Those who stay will be champions; and we were during the 1986-87 season. One thing that separates us from all the rest is 'PMA' (Positive Mental Attitude). Coach Mental has stressed this since we were freshmen, THANKS, Coach. We learned a lot."

Varsity Captains: W. Cloud, V. Rush, M. Furman, D. Evans, R. Greer

J.V. takes L.E.L.

The J.V. Football team led by Coach Ramsey and Coach Cauldwell, once again won the L.E.L. with the record of 8-2. Their first defeat took place at St. Joseph. Then the mighty Cardinals clinched their division before losing to Shaker. The Defense led by captain Norman Hilliard, stopped their opponents often enough to let the offense, led by captain Byron Bolden, to put enough points on the scoreboard to win. Other key players were cornerbacks Reggie Gatewood and Louis Smith; they led our team in interceptions. Our backfield was instrumental with Earl Peirson and Stephen Blake. We also would honor our 3 best linemen who protected our quarterback LeShawn Teechey, Troy Dexter, and Kevin King. We would like to thank all of our fans who came out and watched us. We thank you for your support.

Byron Bolden.

SHAW GIRLS

The Ladybirds Volleyball Team had a hard season. Despite this, Coach Tobiasz and Coach Massa were able to appreciate the individual talents of their players. Player improvement was no doubt attributable to sending players to Volleyball Camp. Five players (Londa Byrd, Kelly Drake, Ericka Davison, Angely Wesley and Jewel Murphy) attended camp at Ohio State University. Five others (Erika Duvall, Vida Johnson, Monica Coats, Rhonda Holmes, and Alana Snowdon) attended training sessions at Cleveland State University.

Londa Byrd was chosen All L.E.L. by a panel of coaches. Other individual awards were won by Jewel Murphy, Most Improved, and Angela Wesley, who won the Scholastic Award. Londa Byrd was also chosen as Most Dedicated for her spirit and individual contributions.

The J.V. Team, under Mr. Massa shows great potential. This is the first year that the J.V. Team had returning players.

Good luck to the '88-'89 team. You can do it!

CARDINAL BASKETBALL

A SUPER SEASON!

The 1987-88 basketball season was filled with achievement and excitement. The Cardinal team which shared the Lake Erie League Championship accumulated a 9-3 record within the league and 14-5 overall. Coach Killian in his 17th year as Head coach and his staff were an important key to the teams success. The team, which featured 8 seniors, 7 juniors and one sophomore, set several school records. Seniors, Toby Hobbs, Sam Potter, Dean Doss, Mike Moreland, Reggie Kemp, Rod Flannigan, Hosea Steele, and Darren Reed finished their high school careers on a team as one of the top five teams in the Greater Cleveland area.

Doss, Hobbs, Reed, Harvey, and Moreland, the mighty Cardinals electrifying guards led the team to several victories. Doss averaged almost 10 assists a game and 8 points. Junior Maurice Harvey and Senior Darren Reed averaged 9 points a game. Senior Sam Potter, Hosea Steele, Reggie Kemp and Rod Flannigan all dominated the backboards in an aggressive fashion. Kemp, who is the school's all-time leading scorer averaged 22 points and 12 rebounds per contest. The Cardinals, with such outstanding underclassmen as Bill Glasby, Eric Rennee, Jesse LeGrande, Willis Epps and Brian Dabney show great promise for next year. The Cardinals plan to make a run toward the Ohio State Tournament and a state title. The Cardinals want to say thanks to the school and the community for their fine support all season.

TENNIS SERVES A SCORE

BOYS

The Varsity Tennis Team is composed of five seniors, one junior and four sophomores. It is an important year for the team based on the number of seniors on the team. The team wants to improve its 1987 record of 2-28 and with a revised, more competitive schedule, this is their number one objective. The team will play a 20 match schedule with the district tournament at Shaker Heights completing the season in mid-May. The tennis team is coached by Mr. George Massa.

Row One: B. Bollar, O. Bishop
Row Two: C. Diggs, Coach Massa, J. Butts

GIRLS

Despite a season record of 0-12, the Ladybird Tennis Team had a good season. Led by team M.V.P. and senior Holly Thompson and junior Charity Williams, the inexperienced team worked hard and improved noticeably. They were very competitive. MOCK TRIAL TEAM

For the fourth year in a row, the Shaw High Mock Trial Team has become the First Place Greater Cleveland Mock Trial Champions and regional champions for Mock Trial competition. The 1988 team has lived up to the tradition of excellence established by previous teams. Although they faced a lot of hurdles, Shaw pulled through with flying colors. Shaw outshone its competition which included Lincoln West, Cleveland Heights, Brush, Erieview Catholic and Shaker.

Dedication, hard work, hours of preparation and Shaw made the Shaw Team rank among the best. Our attorney's Lisa Fields, Antoine Frazier, Shalettha Mitchell, Robin Perry, Michelle Southern and Darren Thompson gave professional presentations which made use of objections and showed an excellent grasp of the case facts and relevant points of law. No matter what was presented, Shaw was ready. Making the attorney's jobs easy were Shaw's outstanding witnesses. They were always well prepared and extremely animated. The judges have commended them for excellent presentation.

Congratulations to the entire team. Good luck to our seniors. We know you'll be successful in whatever you do because you've proved you've got what it takes.

LE MASQUE

The 1987-88 season has been a busy and productive one for the Speech and Theatre students. Under the leadership of President Maurice Odom, students involved in speech and theatre activities have broadened their horizons and continued the tradition of bringing honor to Shaw High.

In this year's fall play, NO OPERA AT THE OP'RY HOUSE TONIGHT marked the return of the old fashioned melodrama to Shaw's stage. The audience enjoyed their opportunity to Boo and Hiss (without being reprimanded). The cast members enjoyed creating the special characters that are found only in melodrama. The spring musical, PIPPIN, brought a touch of magic to Shaw's stage. An exciting cast, led by Maurice Odom as the Leading Player and exchange student Brett Trebilcock as Pippin, sang their way into our hearts as yet another group of talented seniors took their final curtain call. The contributions of the class of '88 to the productions of hits of the past such as GUYS & DOLLS, WEST SIDE STORY and PURLIE will long be remembered.

SPEECH TEAM

This year's Speech Team set new records. The team captured nine sweepstakes awards . . . including an all time high of six first places. The highlight of the season came early in February when the team traveled to Midpark High School for the state qualifying tournament. Eighteen schools from northern Ohio were represented and when the state qualifiers were announced, Shaw emerged victorious. Eighteen Shaw students were chosen to represent the Greater Cleveland District at the State Competition in Youngstown. This win again put Shaw in first place. Special Congratulations go to Desmond Jones and Maurice Odom who advanced to the semi-finals at the N.F.L. National Qualifying Tournament.

At the State Competition, Shaw was once again a worthy opponent. Nine students advanced to the important closing rounds. Quarter-finalists include Van Player, Kara Strong, Derek Barnett and Philip Davis. The Semi-finalists were Desmond Jones and the Duet Acting team of Jacques Sadler and Cornelius Owens. Making it to the final rounds and becoming State Champions were Maurice Odom who placed sixth in Humor and Brett Trebilcock, who placed fourth in Original Oratory.

The class of '88 has indeed left their mark at Shaw. But more important that trophies, awards and curtain calls was their spirit and love. This is a group who should take pride in who they have become and in the legacy that they have left behind. They taught the underclassmen that it is good to laugh and that it is all right to cry. They helped to remind us all that each member of the team is important. We shared our dreams and our love. To each of them . . . we wish success and happiness. To each of them . . . we say THANK YOU. We hope they will now all share their special talents with the world. Class of '88 . . . KEEP THE MAGIC ALIVE.

We Know That You're Together

We will not let our hearts be troubled;
We will not think of you as gone.
You will live on in our memories:
We understand you were here on loan.

We are thankful you lived among us;
It was hard to understand;
But we know that God makes no mistakes;
He has a Master Plan.

To all who knew and loved you,
It seemed nothing could be worse.
We remember that God is always with us.
From the sad, some good occurs.

You all have touched so many lives,
You have and will be missed.
We are comforted in knowing
You're together in peaceful bliss.

Love,
The Graduating Class of 1988
