Volume 35

TO John and Sarah Shaw, the two early settlers responsible for the founding of Shaw Academy; to 1838, the year in which the first building bearing the name of Shaw was constructed for educational purposes; to 1938, this year in which the progress of Shaw is most evident; and to the years intervening between 1838 and 1938, in which so many persons have become acquainted with our great high school—we dedicate this book.

In Memoriam

THE year 1901 marked the first year of service rendered to Shaw High School by Miss Josephine Barnaby, a graduate of the Ohio State University.

After diligently and faithfully teaching history and serving as the head of the mathematics department for fourteen years, in 1915 the sympathetic and lovable Miss Barnaby succeeded Mr. W. H. Kirk as principal of Shaw High School.

In September, 1929, Miss Barnaby resigned the position of principal to Mr. M. C. Dietrich and pioneered in a new field, that of educational adviser. In this new position she had more time and more opportunity to serve the young people, all of whom she loved, by giving them the advice which only she, endowed with her own remarkable personality, was able to give. As a result of this splendid work, Miss Barnaby was not only a great leader in her school but she was also a great leader in the community.

Suddenly on August 6, 1937, this person who gave thirty-six years of service to Shaw High School passed away at Ocean Point, Maine. By her death, the school and East Cleveland lost a well-beloved and highly-respected friend. Although Miss Josephine Barnaby no longer walks this earth, she shall live forever in the memories of those who came in contact with her.

Miss Josephine Barnaby

Board of Education

Mr. Ben B. Wickham, president, was appointed to the board in November, 1929. His present term will expire on December 31, 1940.

Mrs. Miriam Morgan, whose present term will expire on December 31, 1942, first served on the board of education in January, 1934.

Mr. C. W. Kimmel, the vice president, assumed duties as a member of the board on January 1, 1932. His term will expire on December 31, 1940.

Mrs. Ruth C. Williams' present term will expire on December 31, 1940. She was appointed to the board of education in May, 1934.

Mr. George N. Nelson became a member of the board on January 1, 1934. Mr. Nelson's term expires on December 31, 1942.

Superintendent of Schools

Mr. W. H. Kirk

FEW people in this community have witnessed and, at the same time, played an important part in the development of our city and school. It has been with interest and enjoyment that Mr. W. H. Kirk, Superintendent of East Cleveland Schools, has had this unique experience.

After teaching for two years in a small-town high school in the central part of Ohio, Mr. Kirk, a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, came to Shaw which was then an academy for both boys and girls. In that year of 1891, the student body of about forty pupils, and two faculty members, watched Mr. Kirk assume his position which included the offices of superintendent, principal, teacher and coach. Some of those subjects in which Mr. Kirk gave instructions were Greek, Latin, physics, geometry and chemistry. It was under the coaching regime of Mr. Kirk that the first football team was organized.

In 1915, Mr. Kirk relinquished the position of principal of Shaw High School to Miss Josephine Barnaby to devote all of his attention to the position of Superintendent of East Cleveland Schools. Thus it has been in the office of Superintendent of Schools, that we have known and loved this fine gentleman, for whom the W. H. Kirk Junior High School was named.

Executives

IN 1929, Mr. M. C. Dietrich left the position of superintendent of schools in Billings, Montana, to assume the duties of principal of Shaw. He has since progressed far in attaining his three outstanding purposes, namely, the formation of a broadened curriculum to meet the changing needs of the community, the building of a program of extra-curricular activities to stimulate and develop the interests of students, and the development of a system of guidance which guarantees to the pupil close personal attention and assists him in analyzing his abilities that he may best prepare himself for his chosen occupation.

Shaw's Centennial

A hundred years have served to swell your fame,
While farms and open fields were giving way
Before a thriving city; and the same
Bright torch of learning still flames clear today
That has brought so much glory to your name.

Your loyal sons have held your banner high
Upon the fields of sports and in the halls
Of learning; some, not unremembered, lie
Beyond the sea, who left your kindly walls
And for their country bravely went to die.

You are not cold, unfeeling, dead, but are
In truth a living, understanding soul,
Whose fostering care, though we be scattered far,
Will bind our hearts into one loving whole;
For you will always shine our guiding star.

Frank Daykin, '38

THE institution which we today know as Shaw High School was established in the year 1838 as a boys' academy by the endowment of John Shaw, an Englishman, who with the help of five other men cleared away some of the woods of Cuyahoga County.

In 1838, on two of the ninety acres specified by John Shaw, in his will, to be used for the advancement of education, the first building of the academy was constructed. This wooden, two-story building, a reproduction of which appears on the cover and main title-page of this book, was financed by subscriptions secured at a mass meeting of the community and was constructed on Euclid Avenue, then known as Prospect Street.

The first building of the academy was utterly ruined by the destructive activities of the older boys. Therefore, in 1850, with funds secured by interested citizens, a new brick building, a drawing of which appears on the opposite division page, was constructed on the site occupied by the first building.

Several years later, Shaw had deteriorated to a mere district school due to the severe contention and wrangling for the institution by two churches which differed on the slavery question.

SING with praise to old Shaw High School,
Glorify her name.

In the hall of school-day victories

Shaw has won her fame;

While at war with grim Defeat

She learned to play the game.

Sing with praise to old Shaw High School,

Glorify her name.

Sing of love for dear Shaw High School,

Alma Mater fair;

Sharing sadness, offering gladness,

Tendering every care.

Teachers, students, fathers, mothers,

All in tribute share;

Sing of love for dear Shaw High School,

Alma Mater fair.

Daily Scenes

Two promising chemists progressing wonderfully well. Mullally is peeking or else he can't make the nitrate test work. (Maybe it's not a nitrate, Bill.)

Of course the day isn't complete without our meal and noontime chat.

That certainly is a prize-winning gown, Miss Clark.

Four of our young ladies learning what comes inside the can and how bacon fries.

"Now, Mr. Carter, just what gas forms at the positive electrode in the process of electrolysis?"

We also learn that there are more things than what we can see.

Air really has weight.

Building Views

Entrance to auditorium adorned with green foliage.

A blanket of snow was her environment in midwinter.

The sun, sinking in a cloud-filled sky, casts its rays on a building, the source of many memories.

The doorway—eagerly sought on cold mornings, avoided as much as possible on spring mornings—west entrance of Academic Building.

How many times have you passed through this door without realizing it is the most beautiful doorway Shaw has?

The main hall's annual decoration of the Student Council Christmas tree and the boxes for the Marine Hospital.

All in a Day

Neale thinks it's about time to go home now. "Goodbye, Muriel."

Now what kind of a compound are these young chemists making? Shall we ask them?

"One package of notebook paper and change for a dollar, please."

"Now let's see, I hope this is the right way to make a perpendicular."

Bob Price

Once a semester some of the "kids" among us blossom out.

They cause a panic, too.

"After I get it sanded, I'll give it a coat of stain."

"Two hamburgers, please."

"I hope I don't make any mistakes while Mr. Relph is watching."

In the Stadium

A "forging" play in the Collinwood game. Oh, it was a grand day for football.

The only touchdown of the Shaw-Heights game, made by Sweeney. (Notice—Harris was so happy he "took out" the referee.)

Our band spread out in a script formation of Shaw.

The lighties kept Lakewood from "goin' over" regardless of the beautiful snow.

Demonstrating their ability to the rivals.

Of all places, Tresch makes a touchdown in the band.

Another touchdown—first over.

Shaw's interception of Collinwood's touchdown-determined pass.

When rival drum majors meet.

FOR several years after the Civil War, Shaw was little more than a district school. The Academy, at that time, had an insufficient endowment; therefore, the stockholders voted to lease Shaw Academy to the East Cleveland Village Board of Education for ninety nine years.

In 1884, the third building, shown on the opposite page, was ready for use. A very impressive dedicatory service was held on the second floor of the building. Following the services, a supper was held in the basement. The people attending the services were much impressed by the gymnasium for boys only, on the attic floor.

Mr. W. H. Kirk, Superintendent of East Cleveland Schools, became the principal of Shaw in 1891. Under his guidance, the Academy thrived until, in 1896, the Presbyterian Church and Chapel had to be used to relieve the congestion in the Academy building.

In 1902, by decree of the Common Pleas Court and the Circuit Court, the matter of title was settled forever and the lease was given to the East Cleveland Board of Education. It was at this time that the first athletic events and extra-curricular activities were being introduced to Shaw.

ATHLETICS

VINCE DE JULIUS, F. Vince, playing in the backfield, served as fullback and did a good job for Shaw. (Heights game marked his last game with Shaw.) . . . BOB HAMBLY, Q. "Hambone," running through the line as quarterback, was stopped by only the biggest "bruisers." (See the Collinwood game?) . . . BOB HARRIS, L. H. Bob, the left halfback Harris, put all he had into the game and that was plenty. (He didn't see all of the Lakewood game.) . . . PAUL SWEENEY, R. H. Paul, the right halfback, chalked up the score with spectacular runs. (Did you see the Akron-East game?)

LEO ELSON, R. E. "Leo Lion," at the end of the line, played some nice games in his last season. (He really worked hard.) . . . TREVOR REES, Coach. "Trev," of Ohio State, not only has a book of plays, not only knows plays, but teaches plays. (Did you ever hear of 'button, button, who's got the button?') . . . BOB TRESCH, L. E., Co-captain. Bob, filling the left end position, played good football, snagging the pigskin from the air many times. (The Shaker game gave us a handicap because of Bob's injury.)

BILL CORBEAU, R. T. Bill, right tackle, has one more season with which to add one more feather to his hat. (Didn't he get the spirit quickly?) . . . CHARLES STOLL, R. G. "Bubbles," right guard, faithful all-round good player: "game" as they come. (A bad ankle was his misfortune.) . . . BOB SCHROEDER, C. "Farmer," center, the "fella" that snapped back the ball and then took out two opponents. (He dug right in, didn't he?) . . . BILL ROGERS, L. G., Co-captain. "Willy," left guard, was the faithful consistent player who rarely inhabited the bench. (You knew he was in there by the smooth clicking of the team.) . . . BILL DAGLEY, L. T. Bill, left tackle of the line, knew the game and loved to play. (Did you see him playing with the golf balls?)

MAX MELTZER, Q. "Moxy," the quarterback, knew what to do with the ball when it was in his hands. (He started that famous play in the Akron-East game.) . . . DICK PALMER, L. H. Dick, the left halfback, has the right spirit and knows what to do with it. (He was one of our greatest assets.) . . . JACK RINEBOLT, R. H. Jack, filling the position of right halfback, can play football without mathematics. (He's diligent and faithful.) . . . BOB EIDENIER, F. "Tony," our giant fullback, runs in place while awaiting "ye pigskin" to alight in his lofty arms. (What kind of an occupation will the nickname demand?)

GUY BATEMAN, L. H. (J.O.P.) Guy, the Jack of all positions, tried hard and showed some results. (Did anybody give him the cushion for the Heights game?) . . . MARTIN LOFTUS, Assistant Coach. "Marty," of Baldwin-Wallace, was the great big man who assisted our little Mr. Rees. (Did you see that assembly?) . . . JACK STARBUCK, L. E. "Star," left end, regardless of his small uniform, wrapped his fingers around that ball and passed up the ten-yard lines. (If he goes to Ohio State, he ought to be a Star "Buck.")

FRANKLIN BIRT, R. T. Frank, right tackle, one of the boys who proved his worth in the Heights game. (He has lots of grim determination.) . . . WALLACE JUDD, R. G. "Wally," right guard, regardless of size, filled his position efficiently when called upon. (He has the fight it takes.) . . . PHILLIP COOK, C. "Cookie," the center, took time out from centering to intercept passes. (He ran back one interception 98.765 yards for a touchdown—it didn't count.) . . . GEORGE BRYAN, L. G. George, the left guard, stuck by and showed what he could do with hard work. (He plugged all the time.) . . . BILL LEHECKA, L. T. Bill, left tackle of the line, held the line or got his man, whatever he was supposed to do. (He will be with Shaw next year.)

Some Of Us

Sterling Beck, national champion on saxophone.

After dramatic club meeting.

Messrs. Carver and Jones, drum majors. (Really not messers.)

A frequent scene at Aquacade. (The gentleman is Johnny Weismuller and the young lady is Eunice Kay.)

In the shade of the Tech Building.

A human being filled to the brim with words and what it takes to get them out. (Jay Ankeney to you.)

Cheerleaders Corl, Bernier and Stewart.

Another debater—Mr. Meisel.

Taking the long way home. (Notice the Esquire.)

Football queen Kovachy with her crown.

Our efficient office force.

A deep affection, eh boy?>

A belle in Honolulu. Louise Emerson at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

National champion tuba tooter, Jack Smith.

Oh . . . those summer days.

It will do 75 with Elma.

By the "fun house" on Shaw Day.

Notice that pose—there was a bird for each of them.

Football

The Stars and Stripes that flies over the stadium.

Touchdown for Shaw—"hot dawg"

Some of the boys on the practice field.

Score board as it silently told the good news of the Heights game.

Flag raising at the Collinwood game.

The fellows, Edney and Atchison, carrying out the empty helmets.

Are you going to kick or pass it, "Marty"?

Here comes Gugliemotta with a Heights man after him.

"Now you 'guys' will have to smile if you want me to take this picture."

Four of our lightweight stars.

Harmon "plowing" through the snow for a touchdown in the Lakewood game.

Activities

Operetta staged by the choral organizations.

The hall display of the Stamp Club during National Philatelic Week.

A Student Council picture being taken for the Shuttle.

The very impressive Armistice Day program.

Another scene from another play.

"How many more balloons are deserving of our hot air?"

The delightful swing and sway at the "prom."

Just before the holidays, this Christ mas play was presented.

There was action in this play.

I N 1906, it was again found necessary to erect a new building, shown on the opposite page, to meet the ever-increasing demand for education. Still under the leadership of Mr. Kirk and in its fourth building, the school flourished, taking great strides forward.

Clubs, sports and other extra-curricular activities were constantly finding more favor with the students. The choral club's organization preceded the organization of all the other activities. It is also interesting to note that the first athletic team ever to bring a championship to Shaw was the hockey team in 1910.

One great improvement which benefited the students at this time was the crude paving of the main roads. Previously, the students had trudged to school through the mud. A little later they came to school on the stagecoach, the route of which lay on the plank road past the school. The next mode of transportation to come into vogue was the bicycle. Now many of us arrive by means of the automobile or the street car.

ONE of Shaw's oldest organizations is her orchestra . . . This group of musicians appears at . . . assemblies . . . plays . . . operettas . . . concerts . . . class exercises.

Orchestra and band . . . working together in close HARMONY . . . comprised mostly of the same members.

This year . . . since the Greater Cleveland contest is held only biennially . . . orchestra did not stand out as prominently as it has in previous years . . . Yet, because of . . . hard work . . . grim determination to overcome all these obstacles and others which have hindered them . . . members really deserve credit.

With the firm conviction that many artists will soon emerge from this fine organization, let us . . . wish them luck . . . congratulate them upon the fine spirit that they have shown to us this past year.

GONE are the old days of "Watch the birdie, please" . . . Now, the more unsuspecting the victim, the better . . . The candid camera craze, which has swept over the country, has hit Shaw . . . The Photographic Club, advised by the capable Mr. Craig, has taken up this art of the candid camera.

Most members . . . develop their own pictures . . . experiment on angle-shots . . . make their own prints . . . These finer points explained and discussed frequently for new members . . . to bring out methods for attaining greater skill.

As newer, more complex parts of cameras come into use, the members explain these working mechanisms and their advantages over older instruments.

Interesting educational excursions were made . . . to Case School of Applied Science Observatory . . . to Nela Park . . . to Eastman Kodak Company.

Our Affairs

These are some of our seniors who blew up 1600 rubber balloons for their own enjoyment. (Of course, the enjoyment was the "prom.")

"All right, girls, the photographer wants you to look at the camera. Make this a good picture, it's going to be in the Shuttle."

Mr. Leet kept Miss Tatman stepping right along at the "prom."

One of the scenes from a fine Christmas play.

Everybody signing annuals at the first annual Annual signature party.

La, la, la de, de, de, a scene from the operetta.

All ready—bring on your "prom" but don't dance on the ceiling.

Mr. Dietrich's special table at the signature party. An autograph for the asking.

Sports At Random

D'Anna, our star pitcher.

Lewis, leading in the hurdles

"Pothanger" Starbuck "shot one up."

Tip off of the Shaw-Elyria game

Rosenberg ready to break his own state record.

Gugliemotta also plays baseball.

Ed Miller from first base.

Waiting for the lighties to arrive, we find coach Nunemaker.

Palmer "sunk" this basket against Elyria.

Our hockey team participating in the icy game which, after 20 years, has been revived in Cleveland.

Rinebolt "cleared" a good distance in this broad jump.

McIlrath awaits the gun.

Brauel makes a nice jump at Heights.

Our cheerleaders in action.

Clubs Informal

Candlelight service of the Senior and Sophomore Friendship clubs in the auditorium.

Members of the Radio Club working on their transmitter in the Radio Club room.

Mr. Craig showing the Photographic Club how to "fix" the print.

Participants in a typical, formal initiation of the Latin Club.

The prominent young ladies of the Sophomore Friendship Club who compose the cabinet of that organization.

The Stamp Club members industriously looking for news of new stamps.

Some of those marksmen of the Rifle Club are mighty accurate.

Some Philomatheian Club members participating in their club activity—reading.

The "cracking down" in a French Club initiation.

Your Observer subscription money being accounted for by the circulation staff of the Observer.

One of those fast-moving chess games of the Chess & Checker Club.

The Lotophagi Club members attempting more creative writing.

WITH the addition of the auditorium, which was ready for use in 1917, Shaw was prepared for the future. Little did anyone realize what the future held in store for her.

The influence of the war overseas struck Shaw. Over three hundred alumni and students joined the colors. Uniforms for the boys yet in school were obtained; compulsory military training, every day, conveyed to the student body a little of the meaning of war. The super-patriotic spirit of everybody in general was responsible for the adoption of the uniform of middies and skirts for the girls.

In 1921, the students were received into the fine new Technical Building, which, along with the so-called "Old Building" (built in 1906), with the auditorium, with the gymnasium, with the swimming pool, with the band room and with the fine stadium which was first used in 1923, constitutes the Shaw High School of which we are a part.

Thus, it is this great institution of Shaw High School, which was founded one hundred years ago, which has survived so many hardships, which has known so many joys, and which has educated so many persons, of which we are so rightfully proud.
